

RICE DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY
FACULTY-STUDENT CONTRACT
PSYC 485 and PSYC 488

The faculty supervisor and student should each retain a copy of this contract after all signatures have been obtained. Students with non-Rice Psychology faculty supervisors must also obtain a signature from a member of the Rice Psychology Undergraduate (UG) Committee, who will serve as a liaison with the supervisor and submit the final grade. A signed copy of this completed contract must be submitted to the department office in Sewall 464.

Students may not take more than 12 credit hours of PSYC 485 and PSYC 488 during their undergraduate career. Each credit hour requires approximately 42 hours of instruction/student work per semester; a three-credit hour course requires approximately 126 hours of instruction/student work per semester. Summer terms are limited to a total of 3 credit hours for PSYC 485.

Please complete all questions on the back of this contract.
